Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 1, to Tuesday September 4, 1753.

Rome, Auguſt 4.

BY the many Preparations which are making by divers Prelates and other Clergy of Diſtinction in this City for the Cardinal Dignity, we are confidently aſſured, that the Pope has fixed the Promotion for the next Month, to fill up the vacant Hats in the College of Cardinals; in which, as the Difficulties that have retarded it are removed, the Nuncio's at the Courts of crown'd Heads are to be included. On the 31ſt Cardinal Alexander Albani had a long private Audience of the Pope, relating to the Commiſſions he had received from the Court of Vienna.

Naples, Aug. 5. A few Days ago was publiſhed here, an Order from the King, upon Application made by the Republick of Genoa, forbidding all his Majeſty's Subjects to carry any warlike Stores or Proviſions, of what Nature ſoever, to the Malecontents in the Iſland of Corſica. Two of our Men of War, which have been cruizing for ſome Time on the Sicilian Seas, in Queſt of the Barbary Corſairs, returned laſt Thurſday into our Harbour, to repair the Damages they have ſuffered in the late Storms. We have received Advice here, that the Poſt-Boy, going between Milan and Bologna, had been robbed of the Mail by ſome Perſons in Diſguiſe.

Madrid, Aug. 7. Their Majeſties continue at the Palace of the Buen-Retiro, in perfect Health. Beſides ſeveral Military Promotions which the King has been pleaſed to make within theſe few Days, Don Antonio de la Cabra, Colonel of the Lisbon Regiment of Foot, has been preferred to the Poſt of the King's Lieutenant in Pampeluna; and Don Auguſtino de Crame, Captain in the St. Jago Regiment of Horſe, has been promoted to the Rank of Major in the ſame. The Marquis de Cayro, Captain General of the Iſland of Majorca, has informed the Court, that a Barbary Corſair having taken from that Iſland a Chebeck, he immediately gave Orders to Don Antoine Barcelo, and to Don Benoit Capo, Commanders of two of the King's Chebecks, to take on Board a Detachment of Grenadiers of the Regiment of Africa, and to purſue with all Diligence the Corſair, who having come up with her, at the Heighth of the Iſland of Cabrera, after an obſtinate Engagement, wherein the Barbarians had 34 Men killed, they not only retook the Chebeck, but made themſelves Maſters of the Corſair, on board of which they have made 98 Slaves, 26 of whom are wounded. This Action, in which the conquer'd fought deſperately, does great Honour to the Commanders of the ſaid Chebecks, the King having appeared well ſatisfied with their Conduct, as well as with the Bravery of the Grenadiers. Another Corſair has been ſunk by two Barks of Albucemas.

Florence, Aug. 10. From Lombarby we learn, that ſix Senators, and Count Chriſtiani the Grand Chancellor of Milan, are to meet at Rivalta, in the Modeneſe, in order, with the Miniſters of the Duke of Modena, to ſettle the Ceremonial on the Reception of his Serene Highneſs, on his taking Poſſeſſion of the Government of Milan, which, it is ſaid, is fixed for the Month of September, agreeable to the Treaty lately ſtipulated between the two Courts. On the 6th Inſtant the Duke of Modena ſet out on his Journey by the Garfagnana to Maſſa and Carrara, to view the Works of the new Harbour at Lavenza, and the new Road to Lombardy; and as he has declared his Intentions, on his Return, to go by Fiuzano, it is thought he intends to view that Part of the Lunigiana which, agreeable to the ſaid Treaty, it is ſuppoſed is to be exchanged with his Highneſs's Fiefs in Hungary.

Leghorn, Aug. 14. By a Felucca lately arrived here from Corſica, we are informed that the Genoeſe Veſſels, deſigned to prevent the Malecontents from receiving any Arms and Ammunition, continue to cruize with great Diligence along the Coaſt of that Iſland, and that they they have lately taken two Barks, on board of which were found 572 Fuzils, a great Quantity of Matches, and 70 Barrels of Gun Powder. We learn from Maſſa, that the Duke of Modena, accompanied by the Hereditary Prince, has viſited the Work of a new Port, which is building at the Mouth of the River Lavenza, and that his Serene Highneſs ſhewed great Satisfaction to find the Works in ſuch good Order.

Bern, Aug. 16. A Body of Peaſants, of the Frontiers of Burgundy, to the Number of 50 or 60, ſome of them armed, have broke in upon the Swiſs Territory in the Bayliwick of Nyon, in the Pays de Vaud; their View was to ſeize on a Mountain, which has been formerly in Diſpute, and on which the People of the Country graze their Cattle in Summer; they drove the Subjects of the Canton from the Poſt, wounded three of them, and carried off about 50 Head of Cattle. The Bayliff of Nyon, M. Sturler, at the ſame Time that he informed the Senate here of this Act of Violence, applied for Redreſs to the Intendant of Burgundy; but before he could ſend his Orders for putting a Stop to theſe Outrages, the French Peaſants had made a ſecond Incurſion, in which ſome Shot were exchanged on both Sides, though without any Miſchief on either The Bourgoignons remained Maſters of the Mountain in Diſpute, which, though it might formerly belong to the Convent of St. Claude, has conſtantly and avowedly, within theſe hundred Years, been comprehended in the Limits of the Canton of Bern; and particularly in a new Limitation that was ſettled, and very exactly deſcribed two Years ago, between the Intendant of Burgundy, and the Bayliff of Nyon, was again included within the Boundaries, and as Part of the Swiſs Territory. Upon the Receipt of this Advice, M. Lerber, Commiſſary General, was ſent to make the proper and ſtrongeſt Repreſentations to M. Chavigny the French Ambaſſador, on theſe Outrages, who has given M. Lerber the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of the King his Maſter's diſapproving theſe Acts of Violence, and promiſed, that he would write immediately both to the Intendant of Burgundy, and to his Court, in ſuch a Manner, as he did not doubt would ſoon procure the Canton of Bern all the Satisfaction, Redreſs and Security they could reaſonably expect.

Berlin Aug. 21. The King, accompanied by Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, and ſeveral General Officers, arrived here from Potzdam on Friday Morning, and went to dine with the Queen Dowager at Montbijou. It is determined, that the Troops which are to form the Camp at Dobritz, ſhall go into the ſame on the firſt of next Month; and that they are to be commanded, under the King, by the Field Marſhals Schwerin, Kalchſteyns, and Keith.

Hague, Aug. 26. Baron Haaren, is arrived at Soeſtdyk from Bruſſels, where he was moſt graciouſly received by her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante, and the moſt Serene Family. They write from Bruſſels, that Count Cobentzel, who arrived there from Vienna on the 19th of this Inſtant, ſet out from thence two Days afterwards, in order to make a Tour through Flanders.
